

Wednesday 8th July 2020

It was so lovely to see most of you yesterday! We have enjoyed our year with you all so much and we know how amazing you are going to be in Year 3! Well done lovelies, we will miss you so much!

Literacy

We read the final chapter of the book The Diary of a Killer Cat.

Listen to this final chapter and remind yourself of the events at the vet as you will need to remember these later!

Chapter 7: Saturday

brimmed

prised

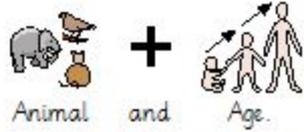

vicious

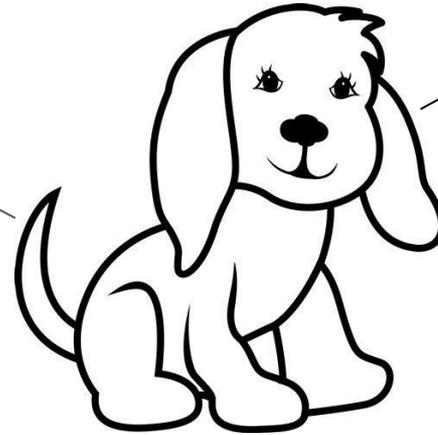

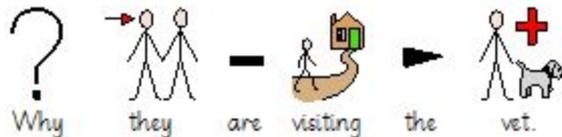

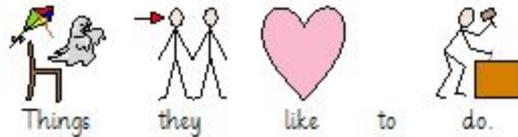

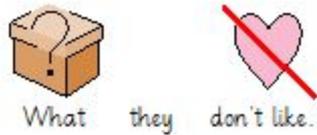

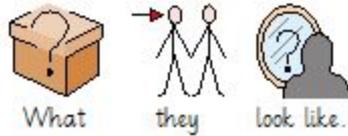

deceitful

Today you are going to pretend you are a different pet at the vet whilst Tuffy is there.

Start by drawing your pet, then annotate the drawing with information about your pet.

Use the success criteria to make sure you include all the information you need to have about your character before you write up their recount of the events at the vets tomorrow!

Maths

Today you are going to practice your times tables!

Watch these BBC Bitesize videos about the 2,5 and 10 times tables then complete the activities underneath.

Science

This week's project is a science project. This means you can be in charge of your learning and decide how you will present your work and findings.

What can you find out about the ocean?

You can choose what you want to learn about but make sure you find new things out, stretch yourselves and make sure the work is of a good quality.

Do you want to investigate animals in the ocean or perhaps choose a particular animal to focus on?

Do you want to find out about the different layers of the ocean?

You might want to make a model or create a powerpoint.

You might want to complete some experiments based on the ocean.

You decide and have fun! On the next two slides, we've put some websites to get your ideas going!

Some ideas to get you started....
