Nursery Homeworking Tasks

Good morning Nursery Class! Here are the Nursery homeworking tasks for today. Why not have a go at making some yummy ice lollies. See the recipe below and use the pictures for some inspiration. You can also make your own height chart to measure and find out who is the tallest in your family! There are some ideas below for today's learning. Scroll down to find the links. From Abi

Make some yummy ice lollies

As the weather improves why not try and make your own ice lollies at home? See below the recipe and some pictures for some ideas. Have fun!

Make a Feelings Diary

To help you think about how you are feeling throughout the week create a feelings diary with your grown up. This will help you realise that it is OK to feel how you are feeling now and also know that your feelings change. Spend some time talking about one or two feelings that you have today (happy, sad, anxious, relaxed, excited, worried). Use the pictures of different feelings from the link below or make your own by drawing them with pen and paper. Use the grid below or draw your own and put the picture that represents how you feel into the boxes. At the end, talk about or draw a picture of at least one thing that made you happy today.

Read A Book

Today's book is Giraffe's Can't Dance by Giles Andreae and Guy Parker-Rees. Follow the link below where you can listen to the story. I like listening to the music too.

Make your own height chart

Why not make your own height chart at home which you can use to measure all the family? Use sticky notes and stick them to the door frame to see who is the tallest and who is the shortest. If you're feeling really creative you could make one using different materials and put it up on the wall. Keep track of how much you grow as time goes on.

Do some daily exercise

Exercise is a great way to keep your body and mind healthy and can really help with lifting your mood. Try some fun exercise from dancing with Oti Mabuse to workouts with Joe Wicks everyday at 9am.
