Good morning!

Literacy

In Literacy, we have been reading "The Diary of a Killer Cat."

The book is written from Tuffy's point of view and through his eyes we learn about the other characters in the book.

Today we are going to write the next diary entry in role as Tuffy or in role as Ellie - you can choose!

There have been lots of new words in the "The Diary of a Killer Cat", so we have put word banks next to the youtube links.

This is to help make sure you comprehend (understand) what you're reading. If you're still not sure what a word means, ask your grown up to help explain it to you.

Let's look at a timeline to track what has happened so far and the new words we've learnt!

Chapter 1 Monday	Chapter 2 Tuesday	Chapter 3 Wednesday
Tuffy kills a bird. New words: hedge dragged stains	They have a funeral for the bird. New words: Funeral ruining petunias lobelias barely anemones complain hissed	Tuffy brings in a mouse. New words: precious avenue ankle-deep fresh dead Fun City

Today you're going to imagine that you are either Tuffy or Ellie

Let's pretend that it's Thursday and Tuffy has brought in a Frog!

Where did the frog come from?
Where in the house did Tuffy leave it?
What is Ellie: thinking, feeling, hoping and regretting right now?

Write a diary entry in your writing books.

Maths

Over the last few days, you've created your own tally chart and bar chart to compare and answer questions. We use tally charts and bar charts to help us organise data. We can also use picture graphs to organise and understand data.

Watch this video to help understand what picture graphs are

Then, log onto Mathletics, click S - statistics and have a go at Picture Graphs

Friday Fun!

Flower Petal Ink

You will need:

- Colourful flower petals
- Boiling water
- Pestle and mortar (optional)
- Jar or bowl

1. Mash the flower petals in a jar or bowl using a pestle and mortar or anything else you can grind them with!
2. Pour just enough boiling water over the petals so they are covered.
3. Leave in a sunny spot (preferably overnight) until the water changes colour.
4. Now you're ready to paint!

THE SCIENCE

Flower petals are colourful because the colour attracts birds, bees and other insects. The insects land in the flower and spread pollen which helps fertilise the flowers. The different colours are caused by different pigments in the petals. The colours that we see in flower petals aren't actually the colours that insects see. Because insects have different eye structures, they may see totally different colours to us!
