

Friday 19th June

Hello Year 6,

We have been looking at the Newsround website and there are so many interesting videos and articles. We particularly liked these:

- Newsround special about racism in the UK.
- Could there be 36 species of aliens out there?
- Coronavirus: What is the R number ?
- Seven things to look out for as the Premier League returns.

Try exploring the Newsround this weekend.

Log-in

Fresh off the boat from England, Vita Marlowe has a job to do. Her beloved grandfather Jack has been cheated out of his home and possessions by a notorious conman with Mafia connections. Seeing Jack's spirit is broken, Vita is desperate to make him happy again, so she devises a plan to outwit his enemies and recover his home. She finds a young pickpocket, working the streets of the city. And, nearby, two boys with highly unusual skills and secrets of their own are about to be pulled into her lawless, death-defying plan. Katherine Rundell's fifth novel is a heist as never seen before - the story of a group of children who will do anything to right a wrong. Chapter 1 here.

Writing to entertain - how to keep your reader engaged.

Subordinate Clauses

Subordinate clauses can be used to add more detail or vital information. Try varying their location within a sentence.

As it was nearly time to leave Earth for good, Billy decided that now was the moment to say goodbye.

Adverbials

Use adverbials to engage your reader with the text and to give them extra important information.

Between the tall trees, Kacey noticed a strange figure.

Scared and alone, the boy trudged through the undergrowth.

Carefully Chosen Adjectives

Use powerful adjectives which match the genre of your text.

The tall, gnarled oak trees provided relief from the relentless downpour.

Parenthesis

Use parenthesis to add in extra information. Parenthesis can be punctuated using commas, dashes or brackets.

Captain Flake – a disappointingly mediocre hero – attempted to douse the flames using a small, pink teapot.

Creative Writing - The Sprint.

The race started. The athlete ran really fast. She could hear the other runners. She thought about winning. 🤔

Imagine you are in the starting blocks, waiting for the race to start.

Write a recount of your race.

- What are you thinking ?
- What is happening inside your body?
- How does that change during the race ?
- What can you see and hear during the race ?
- How do you feel towards the end of the race ?

RE: Sikhism - The 5ks

The Five Ks

All men and women who belong to the Khalsa must wear five symbols which shows they are sikh.

They are called the five Ks because in Punjabi their names all begin with the letter 'K'.

Do you remember the fantastic Zonation dance videos we showed you a while ago? If not, click here to remind yourself. Now some of their dancers are teaching hip-hop from their homes in 'Dance on Demand'. Even if you don't want to try the dances, watch the videos - they're fab !

Extension

The government has created the Oak National Academy to provide extra 'lessons' for children while you are at home. Each day there are maths, English and foundation lessons. The lessons are sequential, so it is important that you do them in order.

We want you to first complete the work that we have set you. If you decide you would like an extension, then click on the link below to access their lessons.
