Picture Book: Dave the Dog is worried about Coronavirus

Aimed at: Primary

Please find below a link to a picture book which you can read with your child about Coronavirus. It is child friendly and will help explain what is happening at the moment in response to the pandemic.

Nurse Dotty is a registered children's nurse who has worked for a number of years in a paediatric intensive care unit. She has written and illustrated a number of stories and poems for her patients to help start conversations and relieve some anxiety and fear. 'Dave the Dog is worried about Coronavirus' is a book that 'provides truthful information in a reassuring and child friendly way'. The author says that it is free to download and can be printed out and shared as wanted.
