

Tuesday 28th April

The Stroop effect was discovered in the 1930s by John Ridley Stroop. During the test, you're given a list of color names, with each word being a different color than what they describe.

The test involves saying the color of a word, rather than reading the word itself.

Can you beat the rest of your family?

Chris, Lizzie and Alison.

Say the Color of each Word!

(Don't read the word)

How Fast can you say it?

black white yellow green red blue
yellow red black green white red
white green red black yellow green
black white yellow green red blue
white green red black yellow green
yellow red black green white red
white green red black yellow green

Extension

The government has created the Oak National Academy to provide extra 'lessons' for children while you are at home. Each day there are maths, English and foundation lessons. The lessons are sequential, so it is important that you do them in order.

We want you to first complete the work that we have set you. If you decide you would like an extension, then click on the link below to access their lessons.
