THE MOSQUE

Mosques are a place of worship - where Muslims go to pray. They are places that connect people to Allah and bring them closer to Him.

Mosques also form the centre of Muslim communities. They are meant to encourage people to interact with each other on a basis of love, cooperation and seeking Allah's pleasure.

Prayer services are held every day at the mosque. Friday is the most important prayer at the mosque, it is called Jum'ah. During Ramadan, people attend mosques for Taraweeh prayers (extra salah) which are held at Isha time or later. There are rewards for praying in the mosque.

Design your own prayer mat (here is a template you can copy if you need it):

RAMADAN

Fasting during the month of Ramadan is the third pillar of Islam. In Arabic it is called Sawm.

It helps develop self-control and helps us to overcome selfishness, greed and laziness. Muslims must not eat or drink from sunrise (Fajr time) to sunset (Magrib time) during this month. The fast is kept so we can remember the needy and feel a stronger connection to Allah.

Muslims get extra rewards from Allah in Ramadan! So during this month we read more Qur'an, pray more, make more dua, give more to charity.

In the last ten nights of Ramadan, Muslims do extra good deeds hoping to find Laylatul Qadr.
